UNFINISHED

perhaps for something so final, so definite, so clearit doesn't feel like an end at all. it's an end that has built you up for a beginning, an end that holds a bright future.
an end that doesn't close doors, but opens them. an end that feels & will always feel unfinished.

student life you might be a northeastern student if...

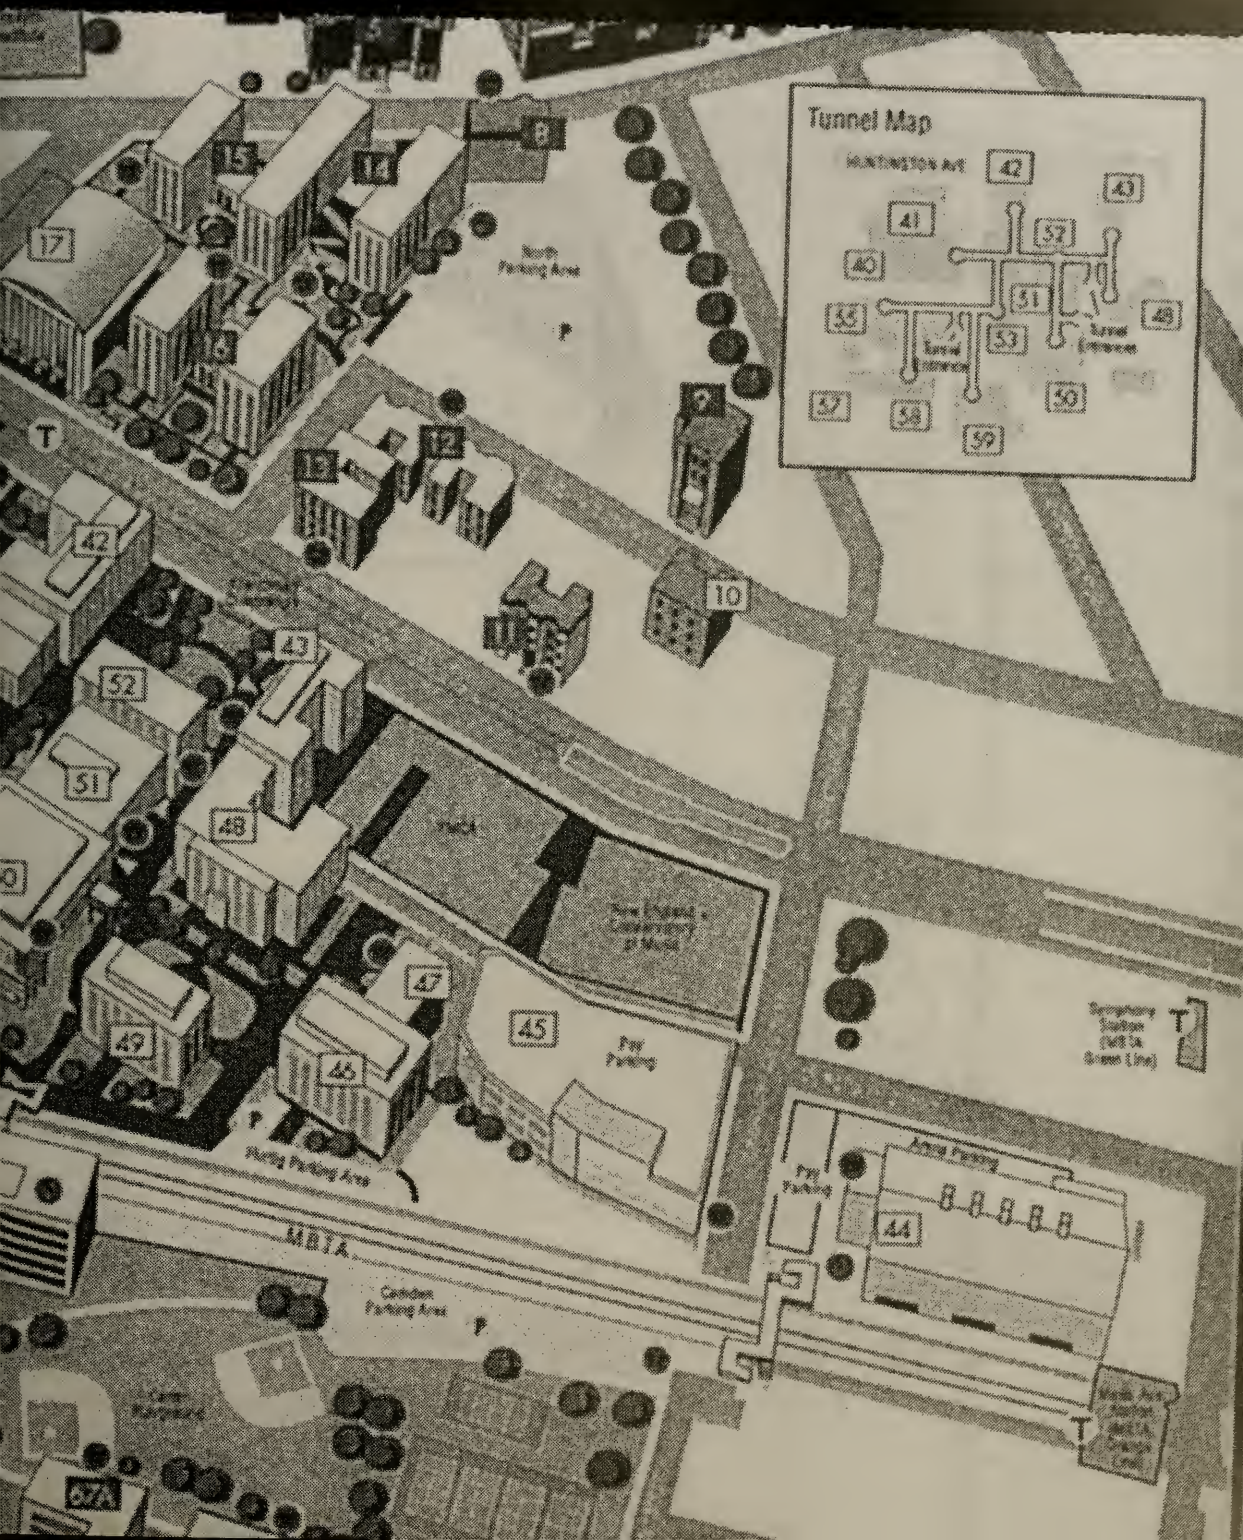

- You are no longer a freshman, but aren't really sure what year you are
- You claim to have helped Sean Fanning invent Napster
- You know the phrase "come to our house" involves going to a bar
- You've spent hours of your life trying to navigate a way out of the monstrosity known as Holmes/Nightingale/Meserve/Lake Hall
- You smile when you see a girl with a red key chain
- You recognize the entire staff of Huntington Liquors
- You equate Activities Period with naptime
- You've said "Cappy's or BHOP?" after a hockey game
- You got drunk off of a Scorpion Bowl at Tiger Lily's before you turned 21
- You've heard that BU/BC/Harvard girls are a waste of money
- You mourned when Chicken Lou died
- You don't know how to get to Parson's Field
- The very mention of the word "trimester" makes you shudder
- You've rubbed the Husky's nose for good luck before a final... and you know our real mascot should be a Husky on a cell phone
- You're a senior, and you still don't know how to navigate the tunnel system
- You consider anything past the Museum of Fine Arts to be too far outbound
- It's 2:01am, and you're already walking towards Little Stevie's
- You refuse to go to Boston College unless you have someone to drive you
- You know there's a frat house behind the Texaco Station...and you've been once... and only once
- At some point you've created your own parking space in the North Lot
- You know someone who's put laundry detergent in the Stetson East fountain

- You know half a dozen shortcuts to Landsdowne St.
- You can tell when the next E line train is going to arrive by counting the people standing on the platform
- You've cut class at least once on a nice day to play softball in the Fens
- You know the good party apartments only by numbers, not names (118 Hemenway #4, 75 St. Stephen's)
- You take pride in the fact that the NU Dog House road fan club makes just as much noise as the BU and BC home hockey crowds
- You can tell a girl's sorority by what type of Tiffany's bracelet she wears
- You don't interrupt when people confuse your school with Northwestern
- You know there is a difference between Beirut and Beer Pong, and you consider yourself an expert at both
- You'll skip your 9:15am Intro to Sociology, but not your scuba diving or yoga class
- You live in Roxbury, but pay $35,000 a year to attend a private school
- You liked the original Cappy's 1 better than the fancy new building they put up
- You know someone who's jumped in the reflecting pool by the Christian Science Center
- You've waved to sideways-bicycle guy
- You're comfortable with the terms "middler," "co-op" and "no-op"
- You've tried to get into the NASA anti-gravitational room in the Egan Research Center
- You consider "working out" reading a Vogue magazine on the Stairmaster without breaking a sweat
- The idea of Kegs-n-Eggs sounds perfectly reasonable, especially on Marathon Monday
- After three co-ops, you've made over $20,000, but managed to spend almost all of it living in Boston
- You think the phrase "Higher Tuition. Richer Freeland" is hilarious

student life semester conversion

Semester Conversion

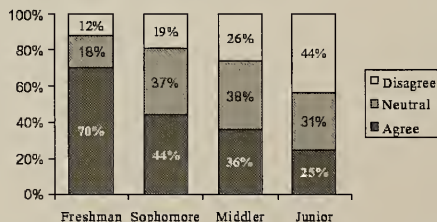

During the Winter Quarter, 2003, NUPULSE surveyed 760 full-time undergraduates to determine their attitudes and opinions about the September 2003, conversion from a quarter calendar to a semester calendar.

"All things considered, I think it is a good idea that NU is converting to semesters."

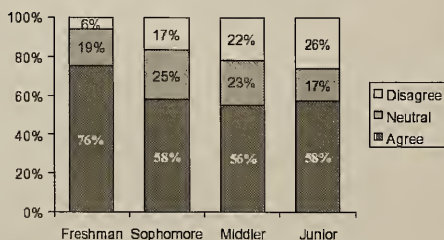

Over half the students in each year agreed that it is a good idea to convert to a semester calendar. However, upperclass students were less likely to hold this position.

"Semester calendar will enable me to have a better overall experience."

Upperclassmen are far less likely to agree that the semester calendar will enable them to have a better co-op experience.

"The calendar change is good for students."

Slightly more than 75% of the freshmen in the survey agree that the calendar change is good for students. However, this percentage declines substantially for all upperclass students.

Quarter System

- Fall, Winter, & Spring quarters: 10-11 weeks each
- Summer sessions: Two 6 week sessions
- Co-op: Seven 3 month job experiences
- Graduation: Mid June

VS.

Semester System

- Fall & Spring semesters: 15 weeks each
- Summer sessions: Two 7 1/2 week sessions
- Co-op: Three 6 month job experiences
- Graduation: Late April/ early May

Dear Class of 2004:

As graduates taking part in Northeastern's 102nd commencement exercises, you will always hold a special place in your university's remarkable history. Thanks in large measure to all of your accomplishments and successes, Northeastern has continued to rise to heightened levels of competitiveness, progress that should serve you well in the years to come. With pride and pleasure, on behalf of the faculty and trustees, I congratulate you on reaching this milestone in your life and wish you every success on the journey that lies ahead.

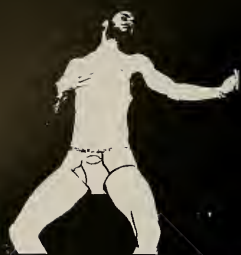

As you leave Northeastern, I hope you see your time here as the beginning of your learning, not the end. There will always be more to know, deeper levels of understanding and higher levels of performance to attain. Keep growing and searching for knowledge, because to stop learning is, in a real sense, to stop living.

I hope you will seek wisdom and compassion even as you pursue knowledge and skill. As you discover, make use of your discoveries. As you learn, teach. As you succeed, share. What you have acquired during your years here can make your community—and all the world—a better place.

I hope, too, that you will keep a place in your heart for Northeastern. You have earned a permanent place among us. We want to be a continuing part of your life and your growth. You are joining generations of graduates, linked to one another throughout the past century. With you now in the vanguard, this University, this family of Northeastern, will flourish anew in the years to come.

Sincerely,

Richard M. Freeland
President

Get Hammered by alana woods

Let's get Hammered!! No, I don't mean drunk beyond oblivion. Hammered is an organization started at Northeastern two years ago by senior Ken Proccacianti.

Proccacianti created Hammered as an alternative to the usual drinking and partying that college students seem to be infamous for. Instead, students are invited to attend or compete in the "Wimpy Body Contest," or take part in the festivities on Halloween.

More Than Just A Game

Homecoming at other schools might be exciting; there might be a marching band, kegs on the front lawn, and of course, the guys without shirts on with letters painted across their chests. But at Northeastern, we've got all the crazies and then some. No moment at any other college beats strolling down a normally deadly-to-cross street, or tops flashing around floats you stayed up all night (sober or otherwise) hammering away at, or psychs you up like cheering the whole walk down Hemenway. NU's 2003 Homecoming celebration took everyone "Around the World" with Marino Madness, Clash of the Classes, and an appearance by Bill Maher in Flackman, landing them home again with a 20-11 Northeastern victory over the Black Bears of UMaine.

MEN OF THE GAME

Junior left back Liam Ezeikel takes a moment's break.

IN THE GAME

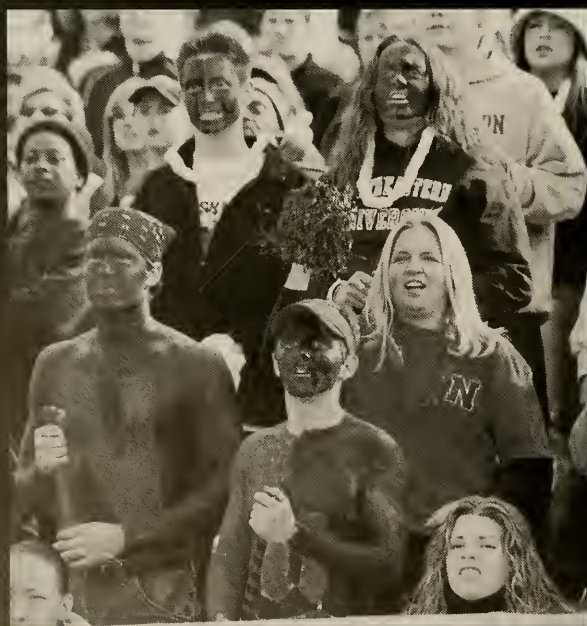

To end a 3 game losing streak, the Northeastern Huskies football team defeated Maine 20-14 at Parson's Field. Previously, Northeastern and Maine shared the title of 2002 Atlantic-10 Champions but in the last quarter the Huskies held the Bears to only 48 yards in 22 plays. The game was highlighted by the performance of Tim Gale, who rushed for a season high of 153 yards and a touchdown, earning the Thornton Homecoming MVT Award. In addition, receiver Cory Parks caught 7 balls with one rushing touchdown and ran for 120 yards. Spectators were shuttled to the game, filling the stadium to capacity; and cheered the team along with the Northeastern Cheerleaders and Marching Band. Go huskies!

“Delta Triton is made up of many individuals who, though different in almost every aspect, share the same goals and aspirations of making the college experience the best opportunity of their adult lives. Each member prides himself in participating in other organizations or groups outside of the fraternity, but hold Theta Delta Chi as a life long commitment, which they will always serve just as the organization will always serve them.”

“They believed that each potential member should be judged on his own merits rather than his family background or affluence... without regard of race, nationality, color, skin tone or texture of hair. They wished and wanted their fraternity to exist as a part of an even greater brotherhood-sisterhood which would be devoted to the "inclusive we" rather than the "exclusive we". From its inception, the founders also conceived Phi Beta Sigma as a mechanism to deliver services to the general community. Rather than gaining skills to be utilized exclusively for themselves and their immediate families, the founders of Phi Beta Sigma held the deep conviction that they should return their newly acquired skills to the communities from which they had come. This deep conviction was mirrored in the fraternity motto, ‘Culture For Service and Service For Humanity.’”

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames, but have not love, I gain nothing. Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil, but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails...And now these three remain: faith, hope, and love. But the greatest of these is love."

"There is a good reason they call these ceremonies 'commencement exercises.'"

Graduation is not the end; it's the beginning."

"I hope that my achievements in life shall be these - that I will have fought for what was right and fair, that I will have risked for that which mattered, and that I will have given help to those who were in need that I will have left the earth a better place for what I've done and who I've been." - C. Hoppe

class of 2004 commencement

“Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond measure. It is our light, not our darkness that most frightens us. We ask ourselves, who am I to be brilliant, gorgeous, talented, fabulous? Actually, who are you not to be? You are a child of God. Your playing small doesn't serve the world. There's nothing enlightened about shrinking so that other people won't feel insecure around you. We are all meant to shine, as children do. We were born to make manifest the glory of God that is within us. It's not just in some of us; it's in everyone. And as we let our own light shine, we unconsciously give other people permission to do the same. As we're liberated from our own fear, our presence automatically liberates others.” -Marianne Williamson

“The true meaning of life is to plant trees, under whose shade you do not expect to sit.”
- Nelson Henderson

*I believe in God

To the Class of 2004:

If I was a woman of few words, which sometimes I wish I was, I would very simply quote a predecessor and say of this entire experience: "I'd never do it again" (Rick Howland, 1970 Cauldron). Of course, he also thanked his wife. Obviously the two of us have nothing in common.

Last year, as I sat in the same seat I sit in now, I wrote to seniors of their accomplishments, and their admirable demeanor in all that they did. Now, I'm one of those seniors. And though I feel the same way about my peers - there is something else to be said of memory and sentiment that I could not possibly know last year, something about leaving this place that plays every memory as a still shot in my mind. There is an emotion attached that wasn't before, a collection of memories upon every footstep across this campus. Memories I have shared with many of you, and for those memories - I cannot express my gratitude in deserving words. Those of you I have met over the years, I am forever in debt to you, for you have taught me the most raw and pure humanity.

I could not have hand-picked a better class of people to graduate with (even though you might say I did, because I'm graduating a year early). We are the most driven and ambitious I have encountered yet, the most kind and giving, and the most aware of our place in the world. We are the people who have spent the last four years eating dessert before dinner, who wear flip flops and shorts at the first sign of a sunny day in March, and had to buy a suit before any of our friends even knew what an interview was. Because no matter how many frigid winters we complained our way through, that first sign of Spring was always worth the whole thing. We're the people who leap before looking and we've always been those people. We came to a school that allowed us into the real world before we finished our sophomore year, because we just couldn't wait to get out there. We are the people who are determined and focused on what we're doing when we walk out of the Fleet Center on May 1st, 2004. The kind of people we are have more confidence than others, have more ambition than others, and have more drive than others. We're sure as hell not afraid to get our hands dirty to get what we want, because we know that anything worth having doesn't just get handed over to you. We bring our own sunshine. We don't complain that a mountain's too high to climb, because for us, the getting there is what makes it worth it. I, as you should be, am honored, blessed, and proud to be a member of Northeastern's graduating Class of 2004.

There is so much to be grateful for, so much to consider ourselves blessed for. We can be thankful for the firm but gentle hand that Northeastern was - guiding, not dragging. A watchful eye that never said, "This is how it's done," but rather let us figure it out on our own. A parent that gave us all the information we needed to make a good decision on our own, and knew that letting us make that decision was a lesson in itself. A knowing smile that pushed us out into the world while we weren't looking, assured we would come out on top.

We have so much to be proud of. We graduated from a school that gave us everything we need to succeed in the world: Value, strength, confidence, worth and courage. And whether you were studying equations or presidents, we have the two most important things a person can develop: personality and character. We leave here with an extreme pride in whom and what we will be associated with in future years.

Always remember wherever you may go in future years, that you have a voice in you that sets you apart from other people. Realize that you will not always be as blessed to be surrounded by such enthusiasm and energy, and that it is your responsibility to inspire that kind of enthusiasm and energy, and to create that voice in others.

I wish each and every one of you the very best with every ounce of my heart. I believe you have the strength in you to make everything you take issue with a better situation. I believe that you are the best and the brightest of this world, and you have been handed all of the tools to create a smoother road for the future. It's gonna get bumpy, and the wind's gonna blow -- but I'm up for it if you are.

I truly hope that all of you in your lifetime will be able to do something like making this book. To create something of your own ideas, mold it into exactly what you pictured, and ultimately have something tangible and solid in your hands to be as proud of as I have been of this has been an experience I wouldn't trade for all of the hours of other things I missed. It has taught me more about myself and the people around me than anything else ever could. Through all of the 14 hour days starting at one in the afternoon, the tightest schedule I ever could have imagined in college, and all of the "I can't come out yet, I'm in the office"s to friends calling from bars - this was truly an education in the ways of the world. Like my best friend says, "Go big, or go home." I definitely went big. And it was worth it.

There are some things which are simple and can be expressed in just a few words. It's my opinion that those things are boring. And if you know me, you know I don't do boring. Thank you, Northeastern - for never being boring.

With my sincere gratitude, respect, and admiration,

The Editor would like to thank the following people...

Heather Allen and The Northeastern News for all of the photography help and the returns of misdelivered mail; Ben, Trevor, and Chris for being the funny guys next door; Todd Shaver for his constant praise this year and making our efforts feel recognized; Laura Ramsdell for always being willing to help with a smile on her face; Brooke Tempesta for teaching me to never let go of my dreams by her example of wishing for Bingo at Night at the Student Center; Ryan Gleysteen and Dana Marcinek for always being so much fun; John Silveria for being the coolest ever (it's that simple); Rick Brooks for a wonderful charm I try to emulate, and a talent that I am absolutely in awe of; My second mothers around these parts: Deidre Fox, Sandra Miller, Tara Anderson, and Caren Orlick Korin: Deidre for always having something to say to make me laugh and shaking her finger at me when I wore flip-flops too early in the Spring; Tara, for an amazing level of energy and the many phone calls where I talked her ear off about nothing yearbook related; Caren, for being a stearn and guiding light; and Sandra, for an inspiring and praising voice and an incredible amount of support in some desperate times; Christie for being my left hand, and Erik for being my right, for being the most perfect balance of artistic and organized, and a wish for the absolute best in your futures because there is not a single soul on this earth who deserve it like you two do - I truly love you both and would not be who I am today without you; The ladies of Sigma, for helping out when a girl really needs it; The best friends a girl could ever ask for: Ms. Jeannie Marcia Hess for countless quotes, song obsessions, and jokes, Ms. Sarah Elizabeth Huffman for strength and patience, Ms. Catherine Swenton for being cute as a button, and Ms. Jodi Elizabeth Place for being a constant in a moment-to-moment life; Mr. Ryan Travers, for being my soul mate and the familial love of my life; The crew for trivia at Conor's and karaoke at Our House; Becs for always being on the same page(s) as me; The ladies and gents from the 'Sea: Dez, El, Gibeau, JPPJR, Boots, Shel for always being fun, no matter what; Christopher, for teaching me how to love someone else, understand them, and keep their feelings as safe as you would your own; Grandma, for teaching me to never wait for someone to bring me flowers but to plant my own; Grandpa, for keeping me safe and always watching over me; Mommy, for allowing me to still call her that at a legal drinking age, for being the most amazing human being I have been blessed to know, for instilling in me a faith that she and God will always take care of me, and for the absolutely boundless and unconditional love I have been given and taught; Daddy, for playing guitar for me at 3 a.m. before I could even speak, for teaching me how to make people fall in love with you in five minutes or less, and for always showing me how proud he was of me; Brynnie, my beautiful baby girl for being the most loving, supportive, and genuine little sister, and for the first hug when I came home for the weekend and the last 'I love you' walking out the door. You have all taught me something that I will bring with me always, no matter how bumpy the road gets. I'm glad I got thrown into this. :)

"It's often said that life is strange, oh yes, but compared to what? ...yeah." - Steve Forbert (thank you, Daddy)

A loud and obnoxious thank you in true form,
Marissa

Jay,
We could not love you more or be more proud. You are the best and forever deserve the same. Don't ever stop learning, be sure to experience the world, and take very good care of number one.

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Craig

Kevin Longo -
Be proud of who you are and what you've accomplished. We are!

Love,
Your family

Dear Sarah Lisa,
We are so very proud of you and your accomplishments, in sports and in life. We admire your enthusiasm, always seeking the best in yourself and in others, your spirit, your mind, your perseverance, and your friendly caring nature. Reach for the stars as you create a wonderful future.

Love always,
Mom & Dad & Mike

Erica Rothman, Where Did the Years Go?

You arrived in 1980 as a most precious child, and you have become our beautiful daughter in what seems like a MOMENT. Through your 23 years you have delighted and inspired us. We could not possibly love you more, or be more proud of the woman you have become - The Sky's the Limit!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Lucy & Jeff

Peter,
These five years have gone by so quickly. We are so proud of you and your accomplishments and you should be too. A brand new exciting journey awaits you... enjoy!!!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Shannon, and Jaime

Emily Dawn Staupe
Major: Psychology

Dear Emily,
Your courage, worth ethic, stamina, and strength are superlative. We cherish the beautiful woman that you have become, and we know you will use wisely the gifts that have been bestowed upon you to make the way better for anyone blessed enough to know you.

Love,
Mom, Dad, Brett, and
Juliet

Kelsey Elaine Anderson

Rojita, tu eres nuestra estrella!
Tenemos mucho orgullo en ti! Buena Suerte en su proxima etapa. We love you so much and are so glad you are our daughter.

Mom & Dad

Anthony,
Congratulations on all you accomplished. We love you and are so proud of you!

Love,
Mom, Dad, and Rachel

Dear Laurie,
Wherever you may go, whatever you may do you will always be forever in our hearts.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Love,

"Singapore has the right formula for global success!"

No surprise that there is an instant chemistry between the athletic and youthful Asia Regional Manager of Chevron Phillips Chemical Company LLC, Dr Mark E Lashier and the fast-paced city of Singapore.

"Singapore is known for its economic progress, cultural harmony and social stability. So when I was offered a job here, I did not hesitate!"

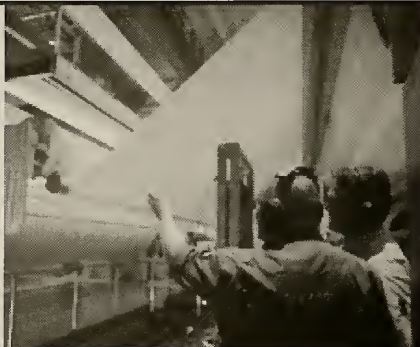

Lashier is a sportsman, scientist and inventor rolled into one – indeed a modern renaissance man. In the course of his career, the energetic chemical engineer had patented several ingenious ideas, leading to his American peers voting him Young Engineer of the Year.

Lashier's wanderlust has taken him around Asia, where he has seen first-hand the increasing sophistication of the chemicals industry in many countries. But he gives Singapore full marks for its holistic approach to developing world-class infrastructure, offering excellent education and attracting top-notch global talent.

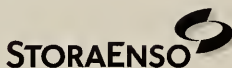

If you want to be a catalyst in creating and shaping dynamic industries, visit www.contactsingapore.org.sg today. It could be the spark to ignite a dazzling career.

Chartwells

we've gotta hold on to what we've got it doesn't make a difference if we make it or not we've got each other, and that's a lot for love, we'll give it a shot
oh, we're halfway there
oh, livin' on a prayer

take my hand, and we'll make it, I swear...
